ACCOMMODATION

The Call of the Wild Lodge is located in the Hoedspruit Wildlife Estate near Hoedspruit, about 50 minutes from Orpen Gate to the Kruger National Park. Sunbird Suite, Kingfisher Corner, African Hoopoe, and Hornbill Haven are the four luxurious rooms at the Call of the Wild Lodge. Sunbird Suite has two double rooms. Each room has either a king size bed or two single beds and can thus sleep four people. The unit shares a bathroom with a bath and a shower. The Kingfisher Corner is distinct from the main house with access through a private entrance from the parking lot. The room has a queen-sized bed, an en-suite bathroom with an outside shower. Hornbill Refuge has a king-size bed that can be converted to two single beds and an en-suite bathroom with a bath only. The African Hoopoe room, like Kingfisher Corner, is separate from the main house and has a king-size bed as well as a single bed sleeper couch. There is an indoor and outdoor shower in the en-suite bathroom. All rooms have tea and coffee making equipment, a bar fridge, and a mosquito net.

Pinnacle Rock and Wonderview are two other highlights. You will also visit the historical town of Pilgrims Rest and have lunch in Graskop (at your own expense).
