ITINERARY

1 Starting in the Cape Winelands, you'll spend a day visiting a wine estate in Paarl, Franschhoek and Stellenbosch. It includes cellar tours and wine tasting and cheese pairings. The tour ends in the Paarl valley with a detour to Drakenstein Prison where Nelson Mandela was incarcerated. Your guide takes you on a tour of the historic town. We stop at a premier wine estate and enjoy a short cellar tour and time sampling the finest wines in their collection. Our next stop is Franschhoek. It's a world-renowned culinary destination for food and wine lovers. After a short tour of the town, we jump onto the Franschhoek Wine Tram. The open-air double-decker tram takes visitors on a variety of routes. You can hop-on and hop-off the wine tram to visit the wine estates on that route. The tram guide tells you more about the history of the French town and its tropical fruit and wine-growing industry. You'll sample a selection of some of the finest wines produced in the valley and can grab a bite to eat and drinks at one of the stops (not included in the rate). Enroute to Paarl, we detour to Drakenstein Prison. In Paarl, there's a short tour of the town then we go to the famous Spice Route. Spice Route is located on a wine farm and has a slot to offer. Leaving Paarl late afternoon, we drop you back at your hotel or guest house between 17h30 and 18h00.
