

The Lesotho Immersive Day tour will take you up Sani Pass and into the Mountain Kingdom settlement of Mokhotlong, allowing you to see more of Lesotho in only one day! Enjoy Lesotho's natural flora and fauna while driving past the highest peak in Southern Africa; immerse yourself in the culture of the Basotho people at a historical trading post; and get a glimpse into history by visiting this small village. The Lesotho town Mokhotlong is a scenic hour and a half drive from the Sani Pass Border Post. You will go Basotho Pony-Trekking in the foothills near Mokhotlong with your guide - to the heart of a homestead to learn from these pleasant and warm people. Because Mokhotlong is so isolated, it has escaped the development that other cities in Lesotho have experienced. As a result, guests may experience a truly authentic village in the 'Kingdom in the Sky'. Your return via Sani Pass will be completed with a visit to Africa's Highest Pub.

The tour departs promptly at 8.00 from the Stables Market Place on the Sani Road, just outside the village of Himeville, therefore you should be ready by 07.45. You can arrange to be picked up from your accommodation. In the warmer summer months (October to March) you should wear light-weight clothing but bring a warm jacket in case of drastic weather changes – which is always possible. In the colder winter months (April to September) you should dress very warmly. You will return to Himeville around 18:00.
