ACCOMMODATION

Selati Camp is decorated with a train theme because, many years ago, the Selati Line, a historic branch railway from the interior to Delagoa Bay in Mozambique, traversed the Sabi Sand Reserve. In each suite, antique steam engine name plates, signals, and shunter's lamps illuminate the path to interesting memorabilia and collector's items with a railroad theme. In addition to its five luxury suites, honeymoon suite, and presidential suite, the hotel features an outdoor lounge, swimming pool, boutique shop, bar, and safari deck. In the Boma, authentic safari-style dinners are served. The lodge includes complete Wi-Fi connectivity to facilitate communication with the outside world, and a backup electricity system ensures that power shortages will not affect your safari.

ITINERARY

1 Your adventure begins when you arrive at the lodge. Your transport from Johannesburg to the lodge can be arranged (shuttle, private transfer and flights) at an additional cost. You will arrive at the Sabi Sabi Selati Camp, where you will be welcomed by friendly staff and shown to your luxury suite. After settling in and relaxing, you will hop on an open safari vehicle and depart on your first game drive in the reserve, where you will encounter amazing wildlife and nature. You will return to the lodge for a delicious dinner and a cosy night in your suite.

2-4 After getting some rest and enjoying a breakfast of rusks and steaming coffee, you will get ready for a dawn game drive that will last for three hours. After you have returned to the lodge, you have the option of having brunch and then spending the rest of the day either lounging around the lounge area or swimming in the pool. Around 16:00, you will go on your afternoon game drive so you can be back in time for another starry dinner.

5 Before you depart on your final morning game drive in the reserve, take a moment to have one final early morning hot coffee and rusk. You bid farewell to the African dawn as you make your way back to the resort for breakfast before your departure.
